

Business London: Start up and Micro Business Support

Discover local sources of finance and business support

Do you need to find finance for your business? Do you know how to apply for Small Business Rate Relief? Or, perhaps you would like to attend FREE local short courses on marketing or employment law?

If the answer is YES then you need to book early for this FREE Balham event as places are limited.

Brought to you by GLE oneLondon, Balham Town Centre Partnership, Wandsworth Council and Wandsworth Chamber of Commerce

When it comes to running a business everyone needs all the financial help they can get, whatever the company turnover. Accessing support can however, be challenging as many entrepreneurs are simply unaware of the opportunities available.

This is why GLE oneLondon in partnership with the new Balham Town Centre Manager have put together an exclusive event for Balham businesses to bring together experts to explain in plain English how to access local sources of finance and business support

Our FREE
business support is not just for start ups

Not only will you be able to soak up the advice and insider knowledge but you can also informally approach the people in the know to ask questions specific to your business.

The event:

When: Wednesday 30th May 2007

Time: 18.30 – 21.30

Where: Raviolo

1 Balham Station Road

Balham, SW12 9SG

(opposite Balham Station)

Refreshments and food will be available during the evening.

How to book:

T: 020 8772 0500

E: wandsworth@gle.co.uk

Please state your name, business name and contact number, address/email

